space provided therefor.

2. If you desire to vote a "mixed ticket," or in other words, for candidates of different parties, you may

(a) Make or omit to make a cross mark in the circular space above the name of any party, and make a cross mark in the blank space before the name of each candidate for whom you desire to vote on whatever ticket he may be.

(b) If you wish to vote for a person whose name is not on any of the tickets printed on the ballot, you may vote for your candidate by writing his name in the blank space directly under the name of the candidate for that office. When you do this be sure to make a cross mark at the left of the name so written.

In case of a constitutional amendment or other question being submitted to a vote, you should make a cross mark in the blank space on the left of and before the answer which you desire to give.

Do not mark your ballot in any other way.

If you spoil a ballot, return it to the election officer, and he will give you another. You can not have more than two extra ballots, or three in all.

You are not allowed to occupy a voting shelf already occupied by another, or to speak or converse with any one except the election officers.

You must mark your ballot in five minutes.

Before leaving the voting shelf, fold your ballot so as to show the endorsements and the fac simile signatures of the Deputy Supervisors of Elections, and keep it so folded until you deliver it to the Judge of Election.

Do not show any one how you have marked your ballot.

Go to the ballot-box and deliver your ballot to the Presiding Judge, whose duty it is to receive the same, and leave the enclosed place as soon as you have voted.

A voter who declares to the Presiding Judge that for any reason he is unable to mark his ballot may receive the assistance of two of the Judges of Election in marking the same.

The ballot must be marked with a black lead pencil.

You are not allowed to re-enter the enclosed place after having voted.

An elector who does not vote a ballot delivered to him must return the same to the election officers before leaving the polling place.

J. R. MALLORY, Secretary.

HOW TO VOTE.

Mysteries of the Australian System Explained.

No Reason for an Elector to Lose His Vote.

Merely Follow the Instructions Plainly Given Below and Then There Will Be No Mistake About It—The Difference Between a "Straight Ticket" and a "Mixed Ticket"—Spoiled Ballots.

Directions as to the manner of marking and voting the Australian ballot in Ohio this year ought to be as simple as the method itself. So far as the amendments to the law of last year made by the Legislature at its last session are concerned the voter need keep in mind only one very simple change. Look for the eagle on the ballot, make your cross-mark inside the circle below it, just above the head "Republican Ticket," fold the ballot so as to show the signatures on its back, and hand it to the receiving judge of the election. You will thus have done your whole duty as a good citizen by voting the straight Republican ticket. It is a noble privilege and ought not to be neglected by any voter.

Full instructions as to the manner of marking ballots and voting, according to the provisions of the election laws of 1892, have been prepared and issued under the direction of the Republican State Executive Committee. They embrace all the information and directions necessary for the information and guidance of Precinct Committeemen, and all other Republicans, and are as follows:

How to Vote.

1. Enter the polling place and give your name, and in precincts where registration laws are in force, your residence, to the election officer holding the ballots, who will write your full name on the secondary stub, or if you vote under the registration laws, your registered number.

2. The ballot and secondary stub will then be detached from the main stub, the ballot folded by the election officer and handed to you. You will then enter the guard rail and go alone to one of the voting shelves for the purpose of

by observing the following rules:

1. If you desire to vote a "straight ticket," or in other words for each and every candidate of one party for whatever office nominated, you must either
